Resolution No. 008

Series of 2024

A RESOLUTION ON THE RULES AND GUIDELINES OF CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES FOR 2024 STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

WHEREAS, the Student Council Commission on Elections (SC COMELEC) stands as the highest policy making body of all election matters in the Polytechnic University of the Philippines (PUP) – Main Campus;

WHEREAS, the definition of Campaign Period was defined under Article VI Section 36 of the Student Council Act No. 002 series of 2022 or also known as the PUP Election Code of 2022;

Section 36. Campaign Period – The campaign period shall be prescribed by the PUP SCA through a resolution. The PUP SC COMELEC can adjust the calendar given there is a possibility of force majeure or failure of elections. Unless otherwise provided, the campaign period shall be conducted for exactly ten (10) consecutive days.

WHEREAS, with the authority vested to the Commission on Elections (COMELEC) by the PUP Election Code of 2022 pursuant to Article VI Section 38;

Section 38. Campaign Period Guidelines. - The COMELEC may prescribe a specific guideline for the campaign period in accordance with this Election Code and the following provisions: a. All election campaigning activities shall only be conducted within the prescribed campaign period; and b. All candidates, political parties, and coalitions may only post and/or disseminate campaign materials within the prescribed campaign period.

WHEREAS, the campaign materials, election campaign activities, and prohibited to campaign were outlined under Sections 3, 4, and 5 respectively of Article VII of the Implementing Rules and Regulations;

Section 3. Campaign Materials – All campaign materials to be used by the candidates, political parties, and coalitions may be posted and disseminated without prior approval from the COMELEC, provided that these are in accordance with this Election Code

3.1 Prior to their filing of certificate of candidacy, independent candidates should submit a declaration of campaign personnel which includes all their personnel and their substitutes.

3.2 Physical campaign materials. – These include but are not limited to tarpaulins and flyers. The COMELEC may prescribe a standardized size for all the physical campaign materials.

3.3 Virtual campaign materials. – These include but are not limited to posts, images, videos, and captions being posted or disseminated on online platforms like Facebook. All candidates, political parties, and coalitions shall provide COMELEC a list of all the official online platforms they will be using for the dissemination like Facebook page, Facebook personal account, and Twitter account.

3.4 All campaign material promotions online shall be organic (unpaid and/or unsponsored promotional material boosting). Facebook ads, Instagram ads, Twitter ads, and the likes are prohibited.

3.5 Any material, regardless of the format, that promotes voting of any particular candidate, political party, coalition, and their electoral platforms preceding election. Any material containing malicious content or attacks towards any candidate, political parties, and/or coalitions shall not constitute as campaign materials, but rather as black propaganda.

3.6 All campaign materials shall be preserved and must not be compulsorily removed even after the campaign and election period. Further, the Commission may set-up a public archive containing all independently collated campaign materials. This public archive shall be made available even after the election period

Section 4. Election Campaign Activities – Election Campaign Activities, as defined in Article II Section 3.9 of these Implementing Rules and Regulations, shall be allowed provided that the candidates, political parties, and or coalitions are not violating any provisions stated in this Election Code, and they have sent a notice to the Commission.

4.1 Protocol – The Commission shall establish a protocol of monitoring and ensure all election campaign activities. The COMELEC shall make sure that the election campaign activities are not violating any provisions in this Election Code.

4.2 Face-to-face Campaign Activities. – For physical election campaign activities, the Commission shall allow the official slate and campaign team provided that they observe university guidelines and minimum health protocols during the activity.

4.3 Virtual Campaign Activities - Virtual election campaign activities are allowed provided that all candidates, political parties, and coalitions shall inform COMELEC the online platforms where the campaign activity will be held.

4.4 Room-to-room Campaign. – Room-to-room campaigns shall be allowed during the campaign period provided that the candidates/campaign managers make the necessary arrangements with the class and/or organization president and/or representative present using official letters. Official letters shall be acknowledged by the COMELEC.

Section 5. Prohibited to Campaign – The following shall be prohibited from campaigning for and/or against any candidate, political party, and/or coalition.

5.1 PUP SC Student Tribunal;

5.2 Constitutional Commissions;

5.3 PUP administration;

5.4 Physical campaigning of Non-PUPians. They are not allowed to enter the University premises (in connection with this University's protocols), unless with valid reasons. Campaigning is not considered as valid reason
